SEATS FREE IN GRAND STAND AT THE FAIR GROUNDS

AVIATOR WORDEN TO MAKE FLIGHTS EACH AFTERNOON

Great Variety of Agricultural and Live Stock Exhibits at Southeast Alabama Fair.

VETERANS DAY.

This is Confederate Veterans Day at the Fair grounds and many of these old heroes of the grey are here taking in the fair. They are admitted to the grounds free.

No admission will be charged to the grand stand at the fair grounds as had been originally planned, according to announcement made this morning by President John Sanders of the Southeast Alabama Fair Association.

This action of President Sanders will no doubt receive the endorsement of the great masses of people who patronize and make possible a fair here each year.

Aeroplane Flights Daily.

Captain Worden, an experienced aviator, will make daily flights each afternoon at four o'clock, and it is said that he does some really thrilling stunts in his aeroplane. He will make his first flight this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The second annual exhibition of the Southeast Alabama Fair Association in Dothan is only one day old yet in that brief period of time multitudes of visitors have taken occasion to see the wonderful exhibits and marvel at them. Never before have such splendid displays of live stock and agriculture, the arts and the different trades, been brought to the attention of the people of this section.

With better times now and prospects of more prosperity ahead, contrasted with the troubled financial conditions prevalent during the holding of the fair last year, is a more than ordinary difference in the exhibits. They are decidedly better. People everywhere have been in a happier frame of mind and with this new optimism they felt more disposed to prepare exhibits. And they have done so thoroughly.

It is an education within itself to tour the fair grounds and see the magnificent specimens of hogs, cattle, live stock, corn, pumpkins, and practically every vegetable product of the farm. These exhibits mark achievements of Southeast Alabama people and are concrete expressions of the possibilities of this country, demonstrating beyond peradventure that this soil responds to proper cultivation and is as prolific as the much talked of farm areas of the far west. Here one sees what may be made to thrive in the Wiregrass soil, and marvels that people whose lands are so rich and bounteous have for many years kept their smoke houses in distant states. It also shows an awakening to a greater farm system.

One of the features of the exhibits that stands out above other features is the fact of the great variety of vegetable products to be seen in the agricultural building, and this is true to a great extent as it pertains to live stock. The unexpected is found in great abundance and the casual onlooker is surprised to find so many different things, all grown in this section. And he is equally surprised at finding that the live stock men are also going in for variety.

Take the Sessions farm at Ozark for instance, and one of the new departures is a herd of Shetland ponies, the delight of every child. Mr. Sessions has a splendid exhibit at the fair.

As to the agriculture the Christmas farm, south of Dothan, just inside the Florida line, is certainly doing wonderful things as the exhibits prove. Here a dazzling variety is offered. Most every kind of vegetation matter, apparently, thrives on the Christmas farm. And so it goes through all the exhibits, which includes a community exhibit from Slocomb of more than passing interest. The people around Slocomb are certainly doing wonders along agricultural lines.

The Central of Georgia railway has an interesting exhibit. This railroad has, through its agricultural department, been working for the betterment of farming conditions along its lines. How well it has succeeded is shown in the array of products, arranged attractively.

Aside from farm accomplishments, one turns to the educational departments as demonstrated in the merchant's building. The work of the school children of the Dothan schools and of the county is here shown off to good advantage. Useful household articles are noticeable—the work of school children—and the drawings and other achievements have been highly complimented by visitors.

Racing Results Monday ..

Dr. Long won the four-year-old Alabama raised colt race, one-one-one. Dr. Long is owned by Mr. McCurdie. Other entries were as follows: Mary Jane, owned by J. B. Long, bay gelding, two-two-three, Abbey A. owned by J. A. Henderson, three-three-two, Marie Newman, bay filley, owned by W. T. Dawkins, four-four-four. This was the most sensational race of the afternoon. Time first heat 1:15 1-2; second heat, 1:15; third heat, 1:15.

The running races were as follows: two heats; Lady Maude, one-one, who won the race; Dan two-two, Will three-three, and Walden, four-four. The time required for these heats was one minute each.

The mule race was the most humorous affair of the day. It resulted in Paul Johnson taking the prize on a score of one-two-two, Oscar Thomas two-three-three, W. C. Davis, two-four-one, C. Hudson and B. H. Thomas also ran.

W. S. Webber acted as judge. Mr. Webber was here last year and acted in the same capacity.

To And From The Fair Grounds

Anyone can pay their way and ride to the fair grounds. The charge is 25 cents. If they don't do this, they can walk. Many are walking, but many are paying the 25 cents. It may be worth 25 cents to carry a passenger to the fair grounds but if the automobile men were to arrange so as to make it a round trip for 25 cents it would help their business, and help the fair.

Many of the people who run cars for hire here, will go over to Troy next week, and pull down a neat roll by charging the passengers 10 cents each way. It is said that the automobile men have agreed to charge 25 cents each way. They have a right to do that, but if there was a way that the fair management could get them to reduce this price, it would help business.

When one pays 50 cents for an admission ticket, 50 cents for going and coming, and then pays for his seat in the grand stand, which he will need, if it rains, and it will rain likely, then that party isn't going as often as he would go at a smaller outlay of cash.

HILL AND WILLIAMS

Hill and Williams is the name of a new law firm. The firm is composed of Solicitor E. H. Hill and R. C. Williams. Solicitor Hill was recently named as solicitor of the new 20th Judicial Circuit, composed of Houston, Henry and Geneva counties. R. C. Williams passed the State Bar examination a few months ago, and had begun the practice of law. For many years Bob Williams was in the banking business in Dothan, beginning with the Dothan National Bank sixteen or seventeen years ago, and later going with the Third National as its cashier when it was organized by his brother, the late Ed Williams. He was considered one of the brightest and quickest banking men in the city, but the Third National Bank sold out to the Dothan National, and Mr. Williams took up the study of law. He will look after the office end of the business while Solicitor Hill is out in the circuit on his duty. Ernest Hill has already made a name for himself in the profession, and is considered one of the most able lawyers in Alabama.

Mrs. Ray Jones has returned from a visit to her parents in Columbus, Ga.

E. C. Glover of Abbeville, was a visitor here today.

Judge J. J. Speight, referee in bankruptcy, of Ozark, is here today.

No Charges For Grand Stand Seats

There will be no further charges for seats in the grand stand at the fair grounds. This action was taken by President John Sanders last night.

In explanation of the former charges, it is but fair to Mr. Sanders to state his side of it. Last year, about one-third of the grand stand was ribboned off, immediately in front of the judge's stand, and a charge of 25c was made for those seats, although they were no better than the seats in other parts of the building. He didn't think it fair to charge a quarter to some, and give free seats to others, when all seats were equal in comfort and arrangement. The management had built some bleacher seats on the left, which would seat some 500 people, and it was thought by furnishing free seats there to those who didn't want to pay 10 cents for the grand stand would be fair. But Mr. Sanders is as much interested in making the fair entirely a success as any other citizen in Dothan, and he says there will be absolutely no charges for seats in any part of the grand stand.

He is aware, as every other citizen, too, that 25 cents each way is too much for the automobiles to charge. He knows that it is hurting attendance, but this is something over which he has no control.

Cars were noticed today with placards on them charging but 15 cents for a trip. It is possible that they will all get together and reduce the charges to and from the grounds, and thereby make more business for the automobiles, and put more people in the fair grounds.

REAL OLD-TIME CLOWNS

Will Be Seen Here With Robinson's Famous Shows.

In the days of the old one-ring circus the clown was the principal pay figure. Beyond doubt he was the most popular idol of the amusement-loving public.

When the three, four and five ring shows came into vogue, the decadence of the clown began. His audience was so far away, he was such an insignificant figure in the vast canopy, that his vocation was gone, and he became put a pantomime, with no opportunity to display the genius of the old days.

The Robinson's Famous Shows have revived the real clown of the days when he was in his glory. There is just as much talent, just as much genius, given the chance to display it, as there ever was, and the genuine comedians who don the white and harlequin with the Robinson's Famous Shows are given full play and never fail to create the roars of merriment that convulsed our forefathers in the days of the old wagon shows.

Billy Lightfoot, the most droll irresistible genius that ever ambled about a circus ring, heads a bunch of twenty carefully selected fun-makers, who will make every moment one of uproarious fun during the entire performances.

Don't miss this great exhibition at Dothan, November 6.

Mrs. E. G. Mack and Mrs. L. A. Voss were among the Hartford visitors at the Fair today.

Here And There at The Fair

Guards Won't Drill.

The Dothan Guards, Company F, First Regiment, Alabama National Guard, will not drill at the fair grounds on Thursday as has been announced, according to Captain C. J. Morris. Captain Morris gives general lack of interest as the reason, saying that the proposition was put up to members of the company and that they unanimously voted not to drill.

Special Train Friday.

On account of educational day the Central of Georgia Railway will operate a special train from Columbia to Dothan Friday morning, leaving Columbia at 8 o'clock. The train will depart on the return trip at 8 o'clock Friday evening. The Columbia special will be packed with school children and patrons who will take in the fair. Other trains arriving in the city on that day will probably be crowded, and extra coaches will no doubt be necessary in some instances.

Trick With Dodge.

T. M. Walden, local agent for Dodge automobiles, gave an interesting exhibition in front of the grand stand yesterday afternoon. He started the engine, set the steering wheel in one position and jumped out of the machine. For some time the car ran around the circle without getting out of its track. The grand stand liberally applauded the stunt.

Has Rest Room.

One of the most convenient and popular places at the fair grounds is the rest room tent provided for all visitors through the courtesy of the Dothan lodge Woodmen of the World. Comfortable chairs have been placed in the tent and tables are also provided for writing purposes. Ice water is also furnished free. This is certainly the place for the weary, and the tent is located to the left not very far from the main entrance gate.

Expensive Engine.

One of the most interesting exhibits at the fair grounds is a Cadillac eight-cylinder cut Chassis engine, with an illumination apparatus so that the workings of the finer parts of the engine are visible to the eye. Notwithstanding that but very few of these high priced automobiles are sold in this section, Mr. W. B. Smith of W. B. Smith & Company, of Birmingham, is here with the exhibit, which is located in the agricultural building. This is the same kind of engine shown in New York and at the big automobile shows throughout the country.

Aviator Arrives.

A great burden was lifted from the shoulders of the officers of the fair association when it was learned that Captain Worden, an aviator, had arrived with his machine and will make flights daily each afternoon at four o'clock. For some reason the aviator did did not show up Monday as had been advertised, although this was through no fault of the fair officials. Realizing that it does not pay to advertise something and then not produce the goods, the officials were highly elated over the arrival of the aeroplane set. This will no doubt prove a good drawing card. Captain Worden arrived last night or early this morning.

FRENCH FORCES GAIN IN CHAMPAIGN

Paris, Oct. 25.—An important success by the French troops in the Champaign district was announced by the French war office today.

In spite of a fierce resistance French troops, following a preparatory artillery fire, occupied an important position known as "La Courtain."

The losses of the Germans are described as serious and the French took 200 prisoners.

The text of the communication follows:

In the Champaign district our troops yesterday won an important success. The enemy occupied in front of their second position a salient very strongly fortified, which had resisted all our previous attacks. In its southwestern part, on the northern slopes of Hill No. 196, at a point two kilometres (1 1-4 miles) to the north of Lemesnil, Les Hurlus, this salient included a very important position called 'La Courtain' which we have captured after heavy fighting. 'La Courtain' extended for a distance of 1,200 yards with an average depth of 250 yards, and including three or four lines of trenches connected up with underground tunnels and the customary communicating trenches, all of which were organized for defense.

"In spite of the thoroughness of the German defensive works, and the ferocity shown by the German soldiers, our men were successful after a vigorous preparatory artillery fire and, as a result of violent fighting, in taking complete possession of this position at the end of the day.

"The losses of the enemy were serious and they left in our hands 200 prisoners belonging to three different regiments.

"There has been no other action o importance on the remainder of the front."

How to Pronounce It.

"Yes," said Lor de Dah, according to the Saturday Journal, "this is a turkeze ring."

"Excuse me," said Bertie, "the correct pronunciation of that word is 'turkwoise.'"

"No, 'turkeze,' excuse me."

"I say 'turkwoise.'"

"Well, let's go to a jeweler and ask him."

"Right."

"In order to settle a wager," said de Dah to the jeweler, "would you mind telling me if the correct pronunciation of the stone in this ring is 'turkeze' or 'turkwoise.'?"

The jeweler took the ring and examined it carefully.

"The correct pronunciation," he said, "is 'glass.'"

MAN IS FINED $300 FOR SHOOTING WOMAN

Anniston Ala, Oct 21.—The case of Branson Scarbrough, a wealthy storekeeper of Chocco Chocco Calhoun county charged with shooting Alyne Faulkner his former sweetheart with an attempt to kill went to the jury late Wednesday afternoon

The case was one of the hardest fought in this county in recent years Scarbrough according to the indictment returned against him on August 15 of this year went to the home of Miss Faulkner and asked her to go auto riding with him She refused and he pulled out a revolver and shot her He then left the house and gave himself up to the sheriff

The defense admitted this and plead insanity caused from chronic alcoholism Numerous witnesses were introduced by the defense in an effort to prove that Scarbrough had been in a state of intoxication for three weeks before the shooting occurred and that he had acted strangely Among the witnesses was a specialist to whose sanitarium Scarbrough had gone after the shooting to take treatment

The jury this morning returned a verdict fining Scarbrough $300 No appeal was taken

ANNOUNCEMENT

We wish to take this opportunity to express our appreciation of your patronage and support of Southeast Alabama s first annual agricultural fair held at Dothan last fall and to call your attention to the big fair we are planning for this year

Our fair last year demonstrated the fact that fairs are the greatest incentive to better farming and diversified crops and stock raising and do more to encourage the farmer along these lines than any agency No one will deny that the splendid agricultural exhibits and extensive live stock and poultry exhibits have been a great benefit to this section The great good which our fair did and the great interest manifested in it by the farmers of this section ... made the Association feel justified in planning for a bigger and better fair in every way this coming fall

The fair this year will be held the last week in October the 25th to 30th inclusive It is planned to make it the biggest and best fair in the South

The splendid grounds are being further improved and additional conveniences being installed for the benefit of the patrons especial arrangements being made to care for larger and more extensive exhibits The race track is being improved and kept in first class condition Many new stalls for racing stock and additional pens for hogs and cattle are being built

The premium lists are being enlarged and more attractive prizes for farm products, live stock school exhibits and woman s work being offered than ever before These prizes will be worth trying for

We are anxious that every farmer in this section have an exhibit in at least one department You are certainly raising something better and finer than your neighbor or just as fine and you should by all means have some kind of an exhibit at the fair this year We urge that you do so The catalogue and premium list is ready for distribution If you want one sent to you free of charge send your name and address to the Secretary

In addition to the exhibits there will be horse racing, sensational free acts high class shows and the biggest and best midway of any fair in the South Nothing or chastely selling will be allowed on the grounds everything will be in good order clean and moral in every particular There will be nothing at the fair to offend any one

This fair is not one man s affair It belongs to this entire section and is intended to benefit and build up It is especially for the benefit of the farmers and farming It is your fair and we want you to take a personal interest in it and help make it a success We especially want and expect you to have an exhibit in at least one department

Dothan's Best Store

Bids You Welcome to Our Great Fair

OCTOBER 25—30

No matter what your distance, we urge you tocome. TO DOTHAN CITIZENS—We urge you to support the Fair. Our section is purely agricultural, we live by the products of the farm; when we do something for the betterment of the farmer, we are also helping ourselves. This is an Agricultural Fair, with numberless other attractions to draw crowds and entertain. Dothan will reap the benefit for all time to come.

——Wake Up — Boost — Take on the Dothan Spirit——

TO VISITORS—We invite you to make our store headquarters, whether buying or not. If buying, we will have extra clerks to serve you.

We have made big preparations. We have gathered all that's best from the world's Fashion Centers. Our store is one price to everybody alike. We are in every way, Dothan's Best Store. We will maintain a rest room for your comfort in the Woman's Building, on the Fair Grounds, with ice water and Sanitary Drinking Cups.

Meet your friends and rest in our rest room
